

GRADUATE SCHOLARS SYMPOSIUM

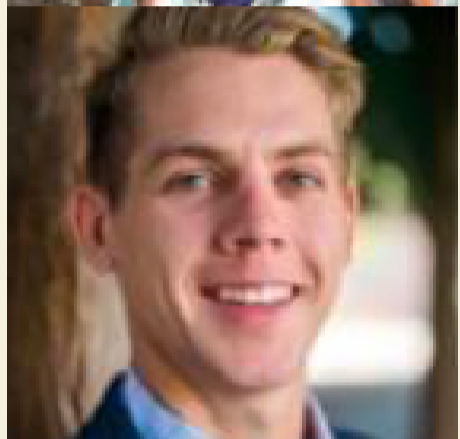

June 3, 2021
4-5:30 pm

Register here: https://ucdavis.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_FYbFHE_tRKK0o5YDXIyLxA

Bernardo Bastien:

“Meta-analysis of Global Ecosystem Services Valuation for climate policy analysis”

Alex Cagle: “Quantifying Environmental Effects and Co-benefits of Floating Photovoltaic (FPV) Systems to Reduce Renewable Energy Land-Use Change and Conserve Fresh Water in California”

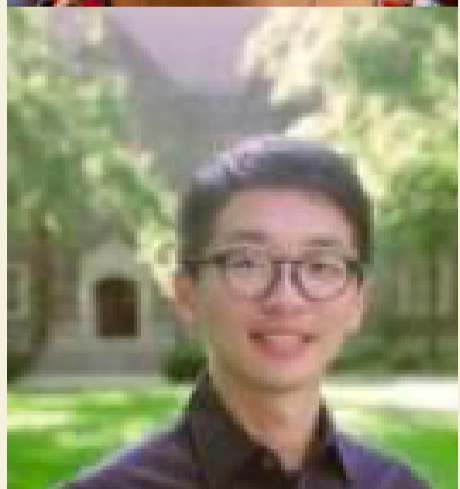

Cynthia Creze: “Cover Crop Systems for California Almond Orchards: System-wide Ecosystem Service Assessment and Growers’ Perspectives Evaluation to Identify Key State Policy Components”

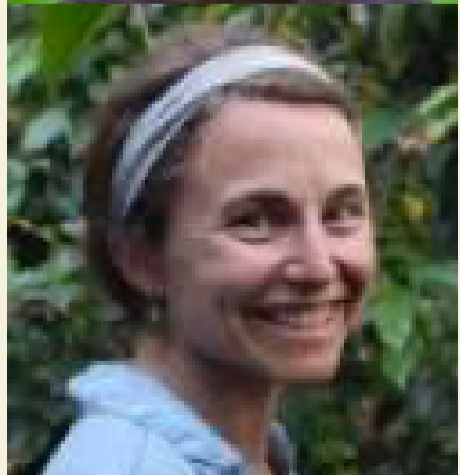

Emily McGlynn: “Virtuous or Vicious: Empirical Analysis of Wood Product Demand and U.S. Forest Carbon Storage”

Hannah Safford: “Closing the Water Cycle: Rapid Virus Monitoring to Enable Direct Potable Water Reuse”

Shanchao Wang: “Market designs Under SGMA, Coupling the Groundwater Cap and Trade System With Banking and Borrowing Regimes”

Liza Wood: “Seeking Seed System Resilience: Network Analysis and Interventions of California Seed innovation Systems”

Introducing our 2021 Graduate Scholars: Hannah Chaney, Brandi Goss, and Emily Purvis